

Specialty Practice: Terms and Conditions

Membership

Participating in SHPA Specialty Practice is an SHPA member benefit. Access to the Specialty Practice portal, including discussion forums, is conditional on your continued SHPA membership.

Access to the Specialty Practice portal will cease if your SHPA membership ceases.

Discussion Forums

Discussion forums are a form of social media. Your contributions are recorded and retained indefinitely, and despite being posted in a private setting, could become public.

As a member of SHPA Specialty Practice Streams, when participating in discussion forums you agree to comply with the

- SHPA Discussion Forum user guide
- AHPRA social media policy
- SHPA conflict of interest policy
- SHPA Code of Ethics.

You also agree to

- de-identify all information shared
- be respectful in your conversations.

Breaches in compliance with the above policies will be referred to the SHPA Chief Executive.

Intellectual property

Documents, publications, presentations and other content, created or generated by or on behalf of an SHPA Specialty Practice Stream remains the property of the Society of Hospital Pharmacists of Australia (SHPA).

Exiting an Interest Group, Practice Group or Leadership Committee

Members may exit Specialty Practice Streams at any or all levels by notifying the SHPA secretariat at specialtypractice@shpa.org.au.
